

The United States has decided that all children with blonde hair and blue eyes are no longer allowed to attend public schools.

Which amendment makes sure that everyone is treated fairly underneath the law?

1

On April 16, every year, Americans pay a portion of their salary in taxes to the U.S. government. Which amendment made this possible?

2

During prohibition, Anheuser-Busch manufactured soda and ice cream, but in 1933 they were able to manufacture beer again.

Which amendment allowed this to happen?

3

Tiberius Tingley is excited because he lives in Wyoming and he's going to be voting for a new senator to represent him in Congress. He spent a long time researching who is best for the job and can't wait to cast his vote. Which amendment allows him to help choose the senator for his state?

4

In the 2012 presidential election, Barack Obama, a democrat, received 281 electoral college votes. Mitt Romney, a republican, received 191 electoral college votes. If this had happened before 1804, Barack Obama would have become president and Mitt Romney would have become vice president. Which amendment changed this process and made it that electors voted for both the president and vice president at the same time?

5

The year is 1920. Victor Vodkason has had a long hard day at work and would just love to go to a pub after work and have a drink. Which amendment stopped him from drinking alcohol in America during this time?

6

Franklin Delano Roosevelt served his third presidential term from 1941 - 1945. This could never happen today because of the passage of which amendment?

7

Abraham Lincoln won the presidential election in November 1860. By the time he was inaugurated in March 1861 seven states had left the Union. This helped lead to the Civil War. Which amendment moved the inauguration from March to January and shortened the time the country had to wait for a new president?

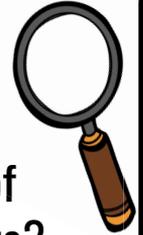

8

In the year 1920, every bar in New York City had to close down. Which amendment made selling alcohol illegal?

9

Before 1960, even though the President of the United States lived in Washington, D.C., the residents of the city could not vote in federal elections because they didn't live in a specific state. Which amendment gave the residents of Washington, D.C. the right to vote?

10

Abigail Annoying lives in Delaware. She read an article about Montana's adoption laws and totally disagrees with them. She decides to get a lawyer and sue the state of Montana.

Which amendment doesn't allow her to sue Montana because she doesn't actually live there?

11

Vera Voteworthy lives in Washington, D.C. Even though she doesn't live in a legal state, she still has the right to vote for President of the United States. Which amendment protected her right to vote?

12

Evelyn Exceptional was really excited to to vote in 2016. When she got to the voting booth, unfortunately, she was told that she wasn't allowed to vote because she's a woman. Which amendment made sure that this can no longer happen?

13

Polly Political went to her local school to vote in the presidential election. When she got there, people were being turned away because they didn't have $50 to pay to have the right to vote. Which amendment was passed so this would never happen?

14

Daryl Dastardly owns an ice cream shop. He decides that he no longer wants to pay his employees. Instead he offers their parents $1000 to buy them and promises to feed them and provide them with a bed. In return, they'll work 15 hours a day. Which amendment doesn't allow Daryl to own his employees?

15

In 1932 Franklin Delano Roosevelt won an election by a landslide. He and the new Congress did not take office until March. Between November and March was a time fell into a horrible economic depression. Which amendment was passed to make sure that the president took office in a more timely fashion?

16

Calvin Callous has decided he would like to buy a couple of people to do his gardening for him. He doesn't want to pay them a salary; he just wants to own them.

Which amendment made it illegal to own human beings?

17

If President Obama had to resign during his term in office, his Vice President, Joe Biden, would become President of the United States until the next election. Which amendment set out the rules for filling empty offices in the executive branch?

18

Before 1971, states were able to set their own rules for the required age you needed to be to vote in a federal election.

Which amendment fixed the federal voting age to 18 years old?

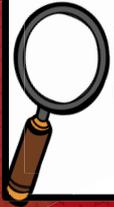

19

In 1874 every male in America was given the right to vote even if they had been a slave. Which amendment made this happen?

20

Gary Greedy doesn't feel like he makes enough money as a senator. He and his friends decide to pass a law that will give them a raise. In order to get the raise, though, Gary will have to be re-elected in the next election. Which amendment made sure Congress couldn't give themselves raises?

21

Emmett Evilson has just become president of the United States. He doesn't like teenagers and forces Congress to pass a law that all children between the ages of 13 and 18 have to live in special schools away from the public. They are no longer allowed to live with their families. Which amendment makes sure that these children will be treated the same as everyone?

22

The 114th Congress, which will serve from January 3, 2015 to January 3, 2017 decided that they would like to give themselves a big raise. They can pass a raise, but which amendment gives the raise to the next Congress?

23

In the 2004 presidential election, George Bush, a republican, received 286 electoral college votes. John Kerry, a democrat, received 251 electoral college votes. If this had happened before 1804, George Bush would have become president and John Kerry would have become vice president. Which amendment changed this process and made it that electors voted for both the president and vice president at the same time?

24

Every six years Nancy Naysayer gets to go to the voting booth and cast her vote for two senators for her state. At one point in time in America, the state chose and appointed senators. Which amendment changed this to a popular vote?

25

Lowell Legal is angry because he is 18 years old and was told he could not vote in the midterm elections. Which amendment made sure that he would have the right to vote at 18 years of age?

26

Imagine the year is 2022 and the Vice President of the United States dies in a plane crash. The President would be allowed to appoint a new Vice President. Which amendment made this possible?

27

Bertrand Bernier lives in Paris, France. He does not agree with the death penalty and is very happy that France does not put convicted murderers to death. He does know that the American state of Texas does use the death penalty and would like to bring them to court to prove that it is cruel and unusual punishment. Which amendment doesn't allow him to do this because he lives in France?

28

Hillary Clinton ran for president in 2016. At one point in history, Ms. Clinton wouldn't have even been allowed to vote. Which amendment gave her the right to vote?

29

Before 1964, some states would charge a fee, or poll tax, before individuals could vote. This was a way to keep its poorest residents from voting and often these residents were African American. Which amendment put an end to this practice of taxing at the voting polls?

30

Mario Moneybags has a great job and makes a good amount of money. The US government takes a small portion of his paycheck. In return they do things like pave roads and pay the army. Which amendment allows the government to do this?

31

President Obama will be done with his second presidential term in 2016. Which amendment makes it impossible for him to run for a third term?

32

On Christmas Day 1933 families were able to toast dinner with a glass of wine and it was legal. Which amendment made it legal to drink alcohol again?

33

Finley is a US citizen. His father is from the Dominican Republic and his mother is from Egypt. He is told he can't vote in the 2020 presidential election because of the color of his skin. Which amendment made sure that all people could vote, no matter what race they were?

34